DURHAM, NH – Executive Councilors Chris Sununu and Colin Van Ostern are statistically tied in the New Hampshire Gubernatorial election. Only one-third of voters say they have definitely decided whom they will vote for.

These findings are based on the latest WMUR Granite State Poll,[*] conducted by the University of New Hampshire Survey Center. Nine hundred and seven (907) randomly selected New Hampshire adults were interviewed by landline and cellular telephone between October 11 and October 17, 2016. The margin of sampling error for the survey is +/- 3.3 percent. Included were seven hundred and seventy (770) likely 2016 general election voters (MSE = +/- 3.5%).
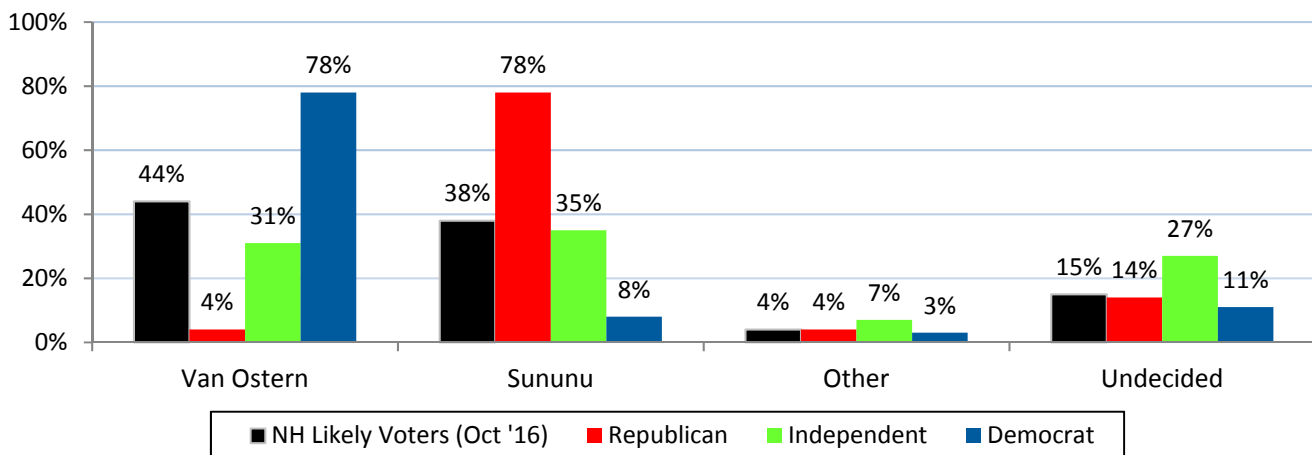

NH Gubernatorial Election

With less than three weeks remaining until the election, only one-third (33%) of New Hampshire likely voters say they have definitely decided whom they will vote for in the gubernatorial election, 13% are leaning toward someone, and 54% are still trying to decide.

If the election was held today, 41% of New Hampshire likely voters would vote for Van Ostern, 35% would vote for Sununu, 4% would vote for someone else, and 21% are undecided.

When undecided voters are asked which way they are leaning, the percentages become 44% for Van Ostern, 38% for Sununu, 4% for someone else, and 15% remain undecided. Sununu and Van Ostern are both receiving the support of 78% of voters within their own party, while Sununu holds a slight edge among Independents (35%-31%).

Favorability Ratings – NH Gubernatorial Candidates

The race for Governor is still up for grabs largely because neither candidate is well-known to New Hampshire voters. Executive Councilor Chris Sununu is the best known candidate for Governor, but is not very popular in the state. Currently 32% of New Hampshire likely voters have a favorable opinion of Sununu, 37% have an unfavorable opinion, 7% are neutral, and 24% don't know enough about him to have an opinion. Sununu's net favorability (the percentage having a favorable opinion minus the percentage having an unfavorable opinion) is -5%, down from +10% in August. Sununu is very popular among Republicans (+40%) and very unpopular among Democrats (-43%) while Independents are divided (0%).

Favorability Ratings - Chris Sununu
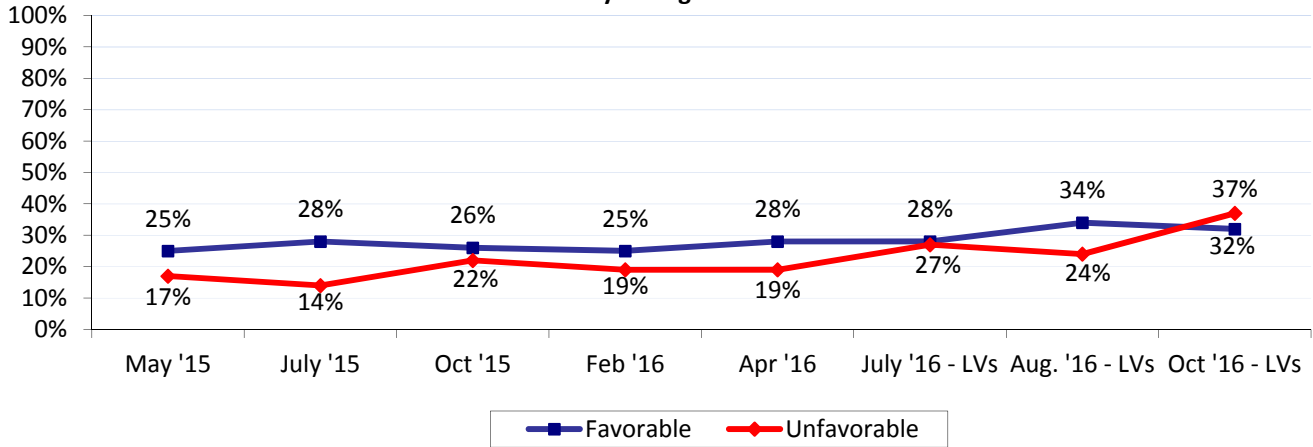

Executive Councilor Colin Van Ostern remains less known than Sununu but is more popular – currently 33% of New Hampshire likely voters have a favorable opinion of Van Ostern, 13% have an unfavorable opinion, 7% are neutral, and nearly half (47%) don't know enough about him to have an opinion. Van Ostern's net favorability is +20%, up from +7% in August. Van Ostern is very popular among Democrats (+50%), somewhat popular among Independents (+11%), and somewhat unpopular among Republicans (-13%).

Favorability Ratings - Colin Van Ostern
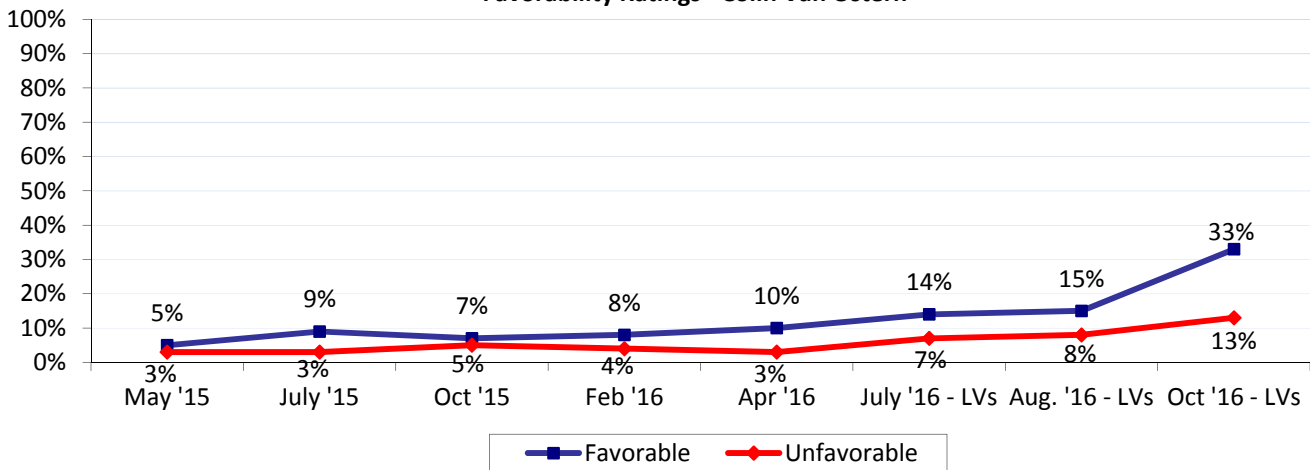

Only 4% of likely voters have a favorable opinion of State Representative and Libertarian candidate Max Abramson, 5% have an unfavorable opinion, 7% are neutral, and 84% don't know enough about them to say. Abramson's net favorability is -1%.
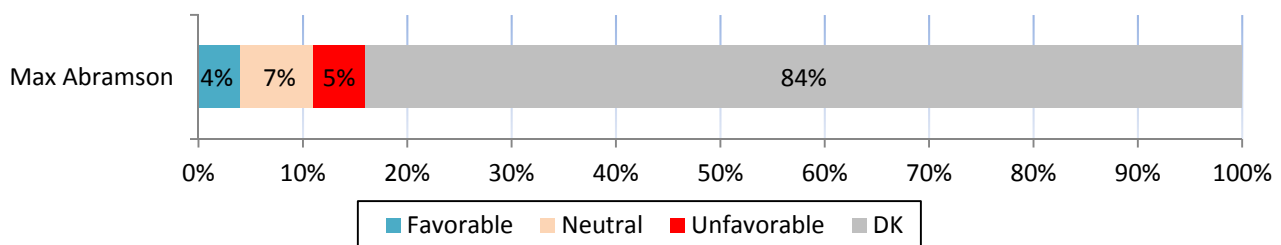

Most Important Problem Facing New Hampshire

Granite Staters remain very concerned with the drug crisis facing the state -- currently, 44% of New Hampshire adults cite drug abuse as the most important problem facing the state, followed by jobs and the economy (18%), education (7%), health care (4%), taxes (3%), and the state budget (2%).

Granite State Poll Methodology

These findings are based on the latest WMUR Granite State Poll, conducted by the University of New Hampshire Survey Center and funded by WMUR-TV, Manchester, NH. Nine hundred and seven (907) randomly selected New Hampshire adults were interviewed in English by landline and cellular telephone between October 11 and October 17, 2016. If a household included more than one adult, the adult who had the most recent birthday was selected to be interviewed.

The margin of sampling error is +/- 3.3 percent for the entire sample. Included were seven hundred seventy (770) likely 2016 general election voters (MSE +/- 3.5%). These MSE's have not been adjusted for design effect. The design effect for the survey is 1.1%.

The random sample used in the WMUR Granite State Poll was purchased from Marketing Systems Group (MSG), Horsham, PA. MSG screens each selected telephone number to eliminate non-working numbers, disconnected numbers, and business numbers to improve the efficiency of the sample, reducing the amount of time interviewers spend calling non-usable numbers.

The data have been weighted to adjust for numbers of adults and telephone lines within households. Additionally, data were weighted by respondent sex, age, and region of the state to targets from the most recent American Community Survey (ACS) conducted by the U.S. Census Bureau. In addition to potential sampling error, all surveys have other potential sources of non-sampling error including question order effects, question wording effects, and non-response. Due to rounding, percentages may not sum to 100%. The number of respondents in each demographic below may not equal the number reported in cross-tabulation tables as some respondents choose not to answer some questions.

For more information about the methodology used in the WMUR Granite State Poll, contact Dr. Andrew Smith at (603) 862-2226 or by email at andrew.smith@unh.edu.
